

CAMERA NEWS

FAMOUS ZYBSZKO BROTHERS, STANISLAUS AND WALDEK
Stanislaus (left) is the new heavyweight wrestling champion of the world, defeating Ed. "Strangler" Lewis in a short struggle of 23 minutes, 17 seconds.

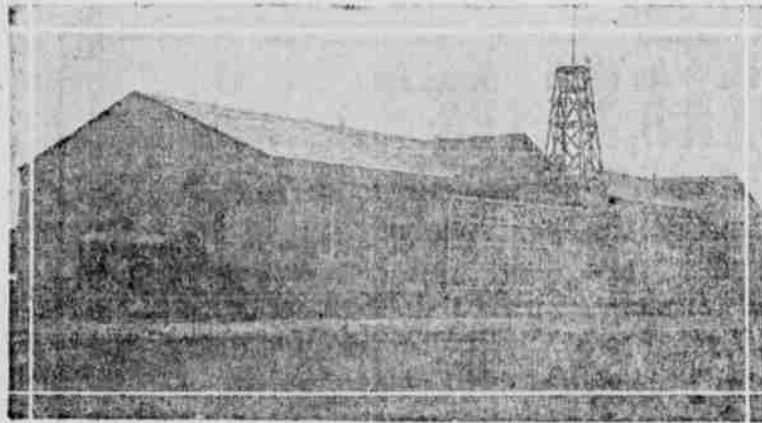

HEADLIGHTS FOR NEW YORK'S NIGHT TRAFFIC COPS

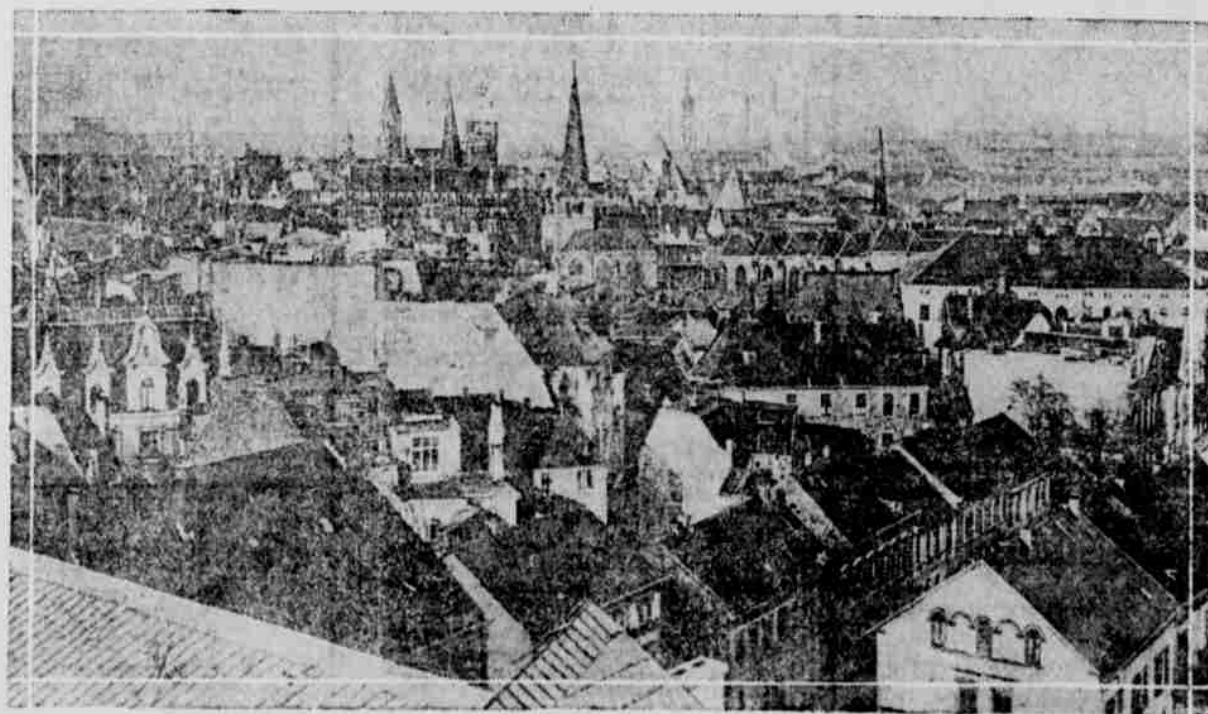

Here is a lighthouse—and harness contrivance and at the right John A. Harris, Special Deputy Police Commissioner, who ordered the new apparatus after a careful study of the traffic problem in London, Paris, Rome and Brussels. The three lights—green, red and yellow, are operated by push buttons, and may be seen for some distance and serve as guide or warning to motorists especially on park driveways, where it is a temptation to speed up a bit.

HALF DOME, YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK, CALIFORNIA

WHERE DEMPSEY WILL TRAIN FOR CARPENTIER
The hangar at Airport, Atlantic City, N. J., built for aeroplanes, will now be a training arena.

ESSEN

Essen is situated in the Ruhr Valley and will be occupied by the French troops if they advance further into Germany. It is the home of the famous Krupp Works.

MRS. "FIFI" POTTER STILLMAN

Mrs. Stillman, who is being sued for divorce by her husband, James A. Stillman, the millionaire banker, of New York. This ranks among the country's most sensational cases.

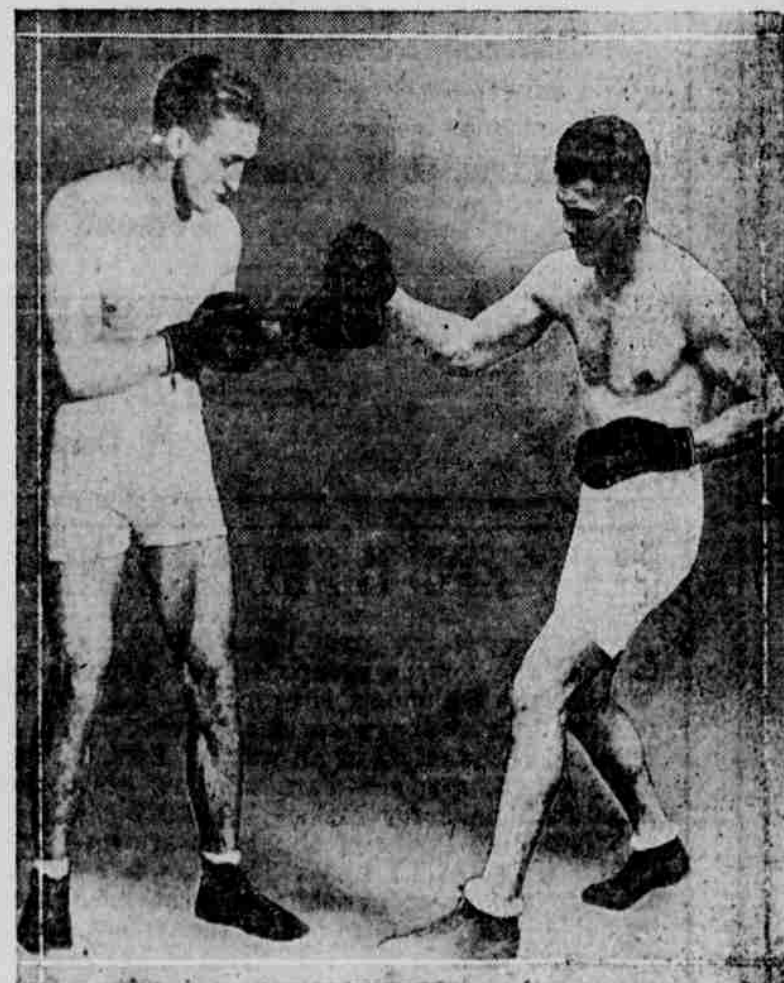

PRINCESS MARIE-JOSE OF BELGIUM

The only daughter of the King and Queen of Belgium. The people actually idolize her, because of her beauty and character.

A PRESENT FROM HUNGARY

Carpet which has been made by the women of Hungary as "a gift of gratitude to Mrs. Harding, as a small token of Hungary's appreciation of the great and noble work which America, officially and privately, has done and continues to do for this down-trodden country." The carpet is 4 yards long and almost 3 yards wide.

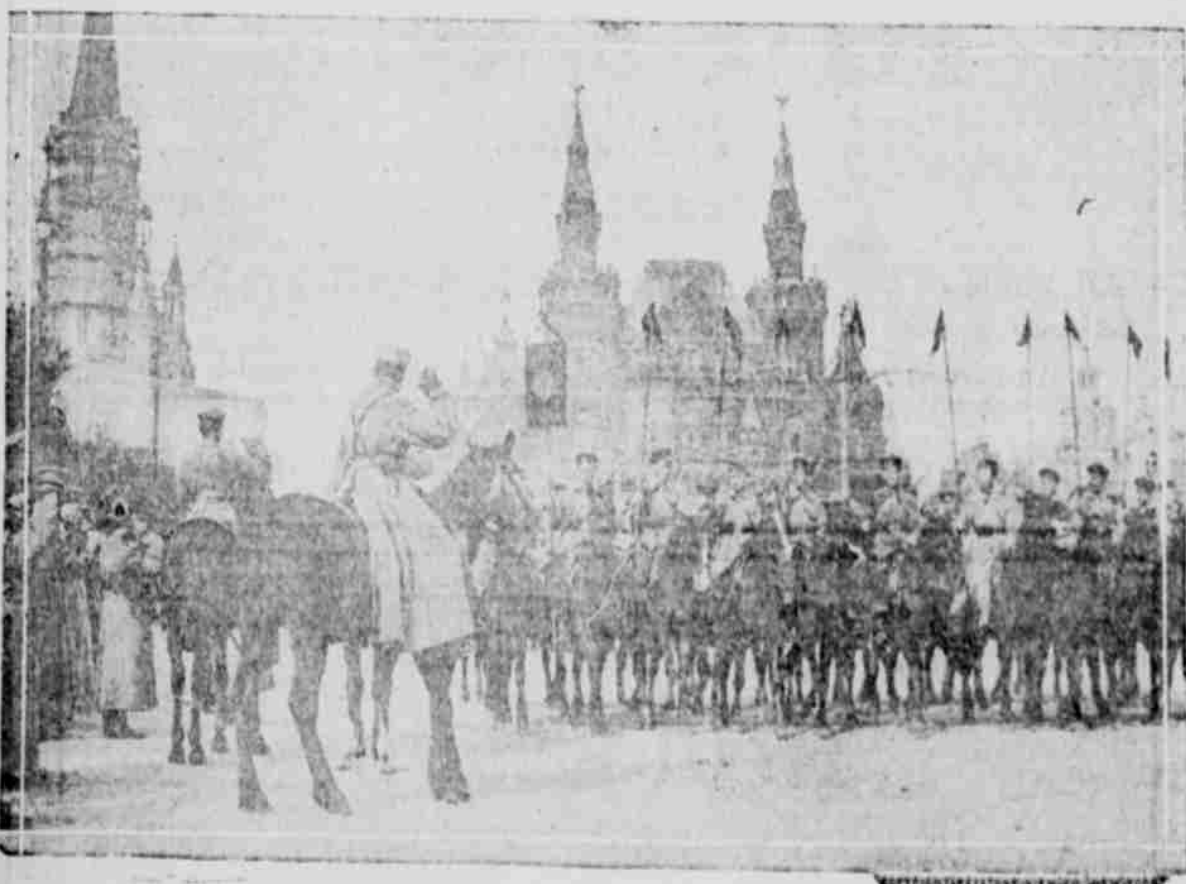

DEMPSEY AND CARPENTIER IN FIGHTING POSE

This is the pose the two contenders for the heavyweight championship of the world will assume when they face each other in the arena at Jersey City in July. The pictures were made at different times while the fighters were in the ring with others and placed in position by the photographer.

ODD FREAK OF NATURE INTERESTS SCIENTISTS

A calf born with three perfectly developed legs on a farm in Alabama is attracting considerable attention from scientists, who are examining it with a view of trying to ascertain the causes of such freaks of nature.

A SCENE FROM SOVIET, RUSSIA

Detachments of Budenny's famous cavalry parading through the Red Square, Moscow. In the background is seen the former Duma building, now serving as a historical museum.

AIRPLANE WRECKED AT MITCHELL FIELD, AS 15,000 SPECTATORS GASP

While making a landing at a flying exhibition held by the officers and men of Mitchell Field, Long Island, Major Henry Abbey, the commanding officer wrecked the SE-3 airplane in a spectacular accident and narrowly escaped death. Before the emergency crew could reach him he emerged from the wreckage uninjured.

IRISH SINN FEINERS IN THE DOCK

A remarkable photo taken in the court room, showing 20 Sinn Feiners in the Dock at Manchester City Police Court, where they were charged with outrages at various hotels and warehouses in Manchester, and at the Faking Street Club, Hulme. They are also charged with having in their possession rifles, pistols and ammunition. There are also several additional charges of attempting murder against the Police. The accused men are marked with big numbers.